C. B. White has been appointed appraiser for the estate of Mrs. Sarah H. Richardson following a suit filed in the Nevada County Superior Court by Thomas H. Kuchel, state controller, against Mrs. Florence Ward Sheffield, daughter of the late Mrs. Richardson.

Kuchel's suit charges the decedent, prior to her death, deeded certain real estate in Truckee to Mrs. Sheffield without consideration and gave her joint tenancy in a checking account in the Crocker National Bank of San Francisco, in stock certificates for 30 shares of American Telephone Company, in stock certificates for 3300 shares of the Richardson Brothers Company of Truckee and in promissory notes totaling $12,000.

County Relief Costs Are Showing Steady Increase

Payments of aid to the needy in Nevada county were $27,337 for August, 1946, an increase of six per cent over the $25,762 payments for August, 1945, California Taxpayers' Association says, reporting on its analysis of relief costs to California counties.

Payments to the needy aged reached $24,395 for August, 1946, compared with $23,270 for the same month in the preceding year. Aid to the needy blind amounted to $1,010 for this August compared with $795 last; aid to needy children was $1,522 for this August, $1,343 for last; general county relief amounted to $410 for August, 1946, and $356 for August, 1945.

"With employment at an all-time high in California, taxpayers could well question rising relief payments," the association concluded.

Lester Ames, 34, Alameda, was cited for driving while intoxicated, failure to stop at an accident and for driving with a suspended license following a minor collision just west of Truckee Saturday night at 9 o'clock. He will appear before Justice of the Peace R. N. Little.

The patrolman located the car a short time later parked near the freight depot and waited until the driver returned an hour later with two companions.

Ames contended that he was not driving but the officers said witnesses declared otherwise. He has two previous convictions for drunken driving and various other traffic viloations, Gautsche said.

By WALTER M. BARRETT

With the new surface on our main street hardly a month old, it is already littered with an assortment of miscellaneous rubbish which almost completely covers the improvement. It seems a shame that something cannot be done through some of our local agencies already established to keep the street presentable. If none of the local boards are empowered to act in this matter, it is high time still another was formed if for no other purpose than to keep the street in decent shape.

Rigid fines imposed on violators of the traffic laws in this area apparently has some bearing on the decrease in traffic accidents. The toll of accidents during the past month dropped to less than half the number reported in August. We are firm in our belief that only through strict enforcement of the law and heavy penalties for violators can the tragic increase in motor vehicle accidents be stopped.

Two things must be done and done quickly if the Truckee River, the best trout fishing stream in all of California, if not in the entire country, is to regain its popularity. The first thing we should do is to see that the water flow is maintained along the full length of the stream. That is important. When that is accomplished, more trout must be planted annually. We do not mean the 30-to-the-ounce trout direct from the hatcheries, although we must agree that this is no small help, but we refer to the trout from the rearing ponds, grown to a size where they are able to be on their own when liberated into the stream. We believe that the San Francisco Flycasting Club and the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen have proven the value of a rearing program in this district. If we can get the powers that control the water flow to cooperate even to a small degree, and then induce the fish and game commission to assist in a wholesale rearing project, our fish problem will be solved.

TAHOE HUNTER IS FOUND AFTER ALL NIGHT SEARCHING

by SWANEE

TAHOE CEDARS— Little did Jack A. Smith of Tahoe Cedars dream, when he agreed to go hunting with his neighbors, that he would create such a round of excitement before he reached home again.

Leaving on Saturday around 3 PM with Joe White, Jim Wilson, H. H. Smith and Bob Campbell, the party drove to Richardson's Lake. There they separated to hunt bucks on different trails. Smith, who had little knowledge of the country went in the wrong direction and crossed over a ridge. Later in the day, when the boys were ready to leave for home, they could not locate him. Shots were fired but no answering shots returned and as darkness fell, a campfire was built with the hope he would see it and find his way in. This, too, failed as he was by then far out of range of the campsite. All night the boys looked and called and around nine in the morning, Campbell and White returned after 15 hours of searching to bring the news of the misfortune and to seek assistance in searching for him.

Charlie Swanson, deputy sheriff, was contacted and was rounding up some men to accompany him while Myers Ranger Station, after being contacted, agreed at once to lend their assistance to the search. There were offers on many sides from men who would join the hunt when, and if, they were needed. Such is the spirit of Tahoe.

It was around 1 PM Sunday when word reached this reporter that the lost man had been found, and except for exhaustion and being footsore, with his clothing tattered, he was all right. He was fortunate in having worn a warm, wool, sheeplined coat, which did much to keep out the cold of the snow-spotted mountains and canyons through which he walked, or rather, stumbled, all night.

It was after daybreak when he came to Rock Bound Lake, where he stopped to drink water. It was there that Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wikander, who own a unique summer camp at Buck Island Lake nearby, spotted him. It did not take long for Wikander to paddle his boat up to the stranger, where he called to him to come and have breakfast with them. A wecome invitation it was, for Smith had eaten nothing since a light lunch the day before. They served him pancakes and hot coffee and other delicacies, and then they drew him a map, showing him exactly how to return to his companions. While on his way back he met up with Tahoe's Gene Walker, who with Constable Harry Johanson, had been hunting in the Rubicon district. It was not far to Gene's car, and it was with utmost relief the tired and tattered hunter accepted a ride back to camp. Smith promises he will be more careful next time he goes out to hunt in unfamiliar country, as his recent excursion scared him more than he cares to admit. He and his family, in unison, declare that they never dreamed they had so many wonderful friends in the lake region, until they had need of them, and all are everlastingly grateful for their haid and goodwill.

P. S.: The party got no bucks!

can tell you a lot about your Water Heater

How does your water heater "size up" on washday? If family use of hot water in bathrooms or kitchen drains down your water heater so you must wait or do your laundry with luke-warm water, your water heater is too small.

Modern homes need a water heater with at least 30 gallons water storage capacity. • When you build a new or remodel your present home be sure to have your plumber "size up" your hot water needs according to the chart below.

How to "Size up" Hot Water Requirements

Minimum Recommendations for Normal, Average Hot Water Service.

Number Bathrooms	Number Bedrooms	Storage Capacity Gallons
1	1 or 2	30
1	3 or 4	40
2	2 or 3	40
2	4 or 5	50
3	3	50
3 or 4	4 or 5	75

Remember, too, a large size water heater costs very little more to operate. It more than pays for itself in worry-free hot water service for the whole family.

Tahoe Letter

From SWANEE

Tahoe City, California.
October 6, 1946

Dear Tahoeites:

This was a beautiful Sunday after the rain, with everything fresh and cool and clean. The surrounding forests received a good drenching and the mountains are white, which will eliminate much of the fire danger from our neighboring countryside, much to the relief of the government forest service crews.

Am afraid it didn't help the tourist trade, or the resort vacationists, many of whom fled at the very thought of a snowstorm, even an early one. Many of the resorts are closed and others will close around November 1.

These early October snow storms have not been seen since the winter of 1917 when Mrs. Janet Watson, our postmaster at Tahoe City, and her husband Bert, well remember the time the late Frank Walker had getting his herd of cows from Blackwood to the valley through the snow. They waded through the highway near Tahoe City in snow up to their tummies, which was a most unusual sight for October.

Last week daughter Marie, little Bill and I made a trip around the entire lake to see how the various communities are progressing. The amount of new building is amazing, with any number of new resorts completed and doing a lively business. Many remain uncompleted, but one wonders where they will get enough people to fill them all when summer comes. Many are very beautiful and elegantly furnished, among the ones I had an opportunity to examine were El Rancho Tallac Lodge, where Artist Mercedes Pearce designed the artistic and colorful drapes, menus, wall decorations, etc. They will remain open for the winter sports crowd and a ski lift and warming hut will be available not far distant when snowtime comes.

Genial Charlie Fisher took me through his lovely new hotel, dining room and bar at Tahoe Valley Lodge just opened for business four weeks, and occupying two floors, with 20 of the coziest, most modern, plush carpeted bedrooms one could ever wish for outside of a city. He will remain open this winter too and expects a full house of winter sports enthusiasts over the Christmas and New Year holidays. Fisher has been in business for the past 25 years in Sacramento and enjoys a host of friends, eager to patronize his new establishment. The Fisher's son, Jim Charles Fisher, 21, oldest of three children, has just returned home following his release from the Navy after 3½ years in the South Pacific, where he engaged in some of the war's most terrible battles. He's badly in need of rest and relaxation and his family hopes the peaceful atmosphere of Tahoe will soothe his nerves and soon bring him back to normal once again.

Another very beautiful hotel is Conolley's, also open the year around. The rooms are charmingly furnished and the lobby is comfortable, spacious and colorfully arranged. It has 27 rooms and 15 cabins and the bar and dining room will remain open all winter. Reservations have been made here also for the New Year's holidays.

Got a glimpse of Sky Harbor in the rain, as heavy showers started with our arrival. Tahoe Village was bustling with carpenters and workmen, replacing the brilliant blue canvas awnings over the front porch with a more permanent covering of wood. The hotel is also being rushed to completion, where it is reported 104 rooms will be available when finished. Although indefinite, plans are being made for an active ski club, and the installation of a lift of some sort to accomodate the winter sports crowd anticipated. Completion of the hotel is slated for sometime in November if presentplans are not altered.

Mrs. Jack Smith of Tahoma district, who with her husband owns and operates Tahoe Cedars Resort, is so appreciative, along with other members of her family, for the warm and wholehearted cooperation extended by all her neighbors and townsfolk during the trying time they waited for her husband to be found after having been lost in the wilds of the Richardson Lake country. Also discovered her daughter, Dorothy Rayner, former corporal in the WAC and a member of the AAF, is entitled to a spot of honor on the Memorial Wall at the Tahoe Episcopal outdoor chapel. She was only recently discharged from service, having spent a year and a half in overseas duty in France, Germany, Switzerland and other countries doing personnel work. One of her most delightful furloughs was spent at Lake Geneva and much of her time was spent in Munich.

During my trip around the lake on Monday, I met again some charming people to whom I had been introduce at the Tahoe-Sierra Association meeting and luncheon at Richardson's recently. They are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Abercrombie, owners of Bay View Resort above Emerald Bay, who have as their houseguest his father, A. J. Abercrombie, former resident of Alabama. Last month a distinguished guest at their top-of-the-world resort among the pines was Madam Stella Jellico, a member of the San Carlos Opera Company. She and her husband, George Aronstamm of San Francisco, hugely enjoyed their stay and plan to return again next summer. During their visit, Madam Jellico, late one evening, stood on the veranda of the social hall. Charmed by the tranquil beauty of the night, she began to sing, her rich saprano voice echoing across the silent forest and the waters of the bay below. Before long, motorists passing by caught the golden tones and stopped to listen, and in no time at all a stream of tourist laden cars were lined up on the hghway below, a quiet, appreciative audience. Her offerings ran from Ave Maria to Carry Me Back to Old Virginny. The Abercrombies remain open until October 15, the family to spend the winter letter two .... Rfsm .....666 at their home in San Jose. High compliment was paid Abercrombie's son, William Robert Jr., who recently was notified by the Navy that he had ranked third highest in the nation's applicants for Annapolis Naval Academy which he will attend. The day I visited them, September 30th, was his 19th birthday. He is a former resident of Birlingham, Alabama, and attened Marion Military Academy, where in two years and eight months he completed three years of high school and more than one year of college work. His name was on the dean's list almost every semester and he earned a letter in football. Next year he hopes to pay his family a visit here, which will be his first.

Stopped in to see the Al Richardsons and was taken through their beautiful new home which I had never seen. They and Bud Richardsons left on Monday for a motor trip back to Aaron, South Dakota, where they will be among those present for the opening of the pheasant season October 15. They may even take a fling at a bit of buck hunting while there, since the bucks were not too plentiful at Tahoe this year. The only man at Richardson's, up to the day of my visit at the resort, who had shot his buck was Richardson's maintenance foreman, Bill Yonkee, who got a three point 130 pounder near Fallen Leaf. Richardson's closed for the season on October 1 nd will not be open during the winter.

Mrs. A. C. Stoddard has found a new way to secure nylons, but she doesn't recommend it to her friends. Tuesday of last week she fell down the stairs at a Reno department store, breaking her glasses, ripping her nylons and suffering a number of bruises and skinned places. She is up and about her Lake Forest home and preparing to leave the middle of the week for Palm Springs where her husband has been visiting since the Centennial. He will open his own shop there this winter. Daughter Bett and husband and little Bill (Mr and Mrs. Harvey Seickert) left for Nevada City where they may spend the winter.

Ring off for another week as the sun still shines. According to the Indian manner of prognostication, we should have a light winter as there are no pinenuts in the Nevada hills and vales this fall, but will believe it when I see next spring, as I've watched other so-called signs that failed to materialize. Adios and good wishes, as ever, Swanee.

FOR* Veterans' Welfare

Vote "YES" on Proposition 2!

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans urge you to vote "YES" on Proposition 2 on the November ballot.

This measure will legalize greyhound racing in California — under strict state supervision — and turn over 4 per cent of all track wagers to a Veterans' Fund administered by the State Department of Veterans Affairs.

It will perform a distinct service for California veterans. It will guarantee adequate financing of state-sponsored welfare and rehabilitation activities, including support of the Veterans' Home at Yountville. It will relieve the taxpayer of the burden of paying for these services; greyhound racing will pay the bill instead.

California veterans ask you to support them in this campaign.

Let's carry through - Vote 'YES' on 2

CHURCH REPAIR TO START; PLANS FOR SUPPER ARE TOLD

by Rev. Marvin Quattlebaum

We are now ready to begin roofing the Community Methodist Church and as we did not contract this work, we are palnning to have it done with donated labor. Anyone that is interested to help, it will be greatly appreciated. It is our hope to get the roof on and the Church painted before the weather is unfavorable to do this kind of outside work.

There will be a fellowship pot luck supper at the Church Wednesday evening, October 16, beginning at 6:30. The public is welcome to attend. We will have as our guest the Rev. Don Fleming, minister of First Methodist Church, Reno. Rev. Fleming is an able speaker and will speak to us on stewardship.

We invite all that are not attending Church elsewhere to worship with us. Our Sunday School is at 10 AM, Sunday Morning Worship at 11 AM, Sunday Evening Worship at 7:30 PM and Mid-Week Bible Study at 7:30 PM Wednesdays.

We again thank all that have contributed to the repairing of the Community Methodist Church.

California Gas Taxes Are Lowest In Nation

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 10 —(UP)— A report on highway taxation issued here shows 40 states have higher gasoline taxes than California, and only one state has a lower rate.

Even in that state total rates are higher because cities impose gasoline taxes in addition to the state tax.

The report was released by State Senator Randolph Collier, chairman of the legislative joint fact-finding committee of highways, streets and bridges, and was prepared by Richard M. Zettel, tax analyst.

The report showed that altogether, California's taxes for privately operated vehicles are among the lowest in the country, including rates set for registration and weight.

The analysis showed that if average property tax rates had been used rather than "highway user taxation," the state would have collected $18 million more between 1935 and 1946.

LATIN REPUBLIC HAS LAND FOR PIONEERS FROM U. S., BRITAIN

The Department of Public Lands and Colonization of the Ministry of Economy of the government of Ecuador, South America, announces that 125,000 acres of rich nd potentially prductive but uncleared land in the Santo Domingo de los Colorados area of Ecuador is now available to North American and British settlers. Each adult settler may obtain 50 hectares or approximately 124 acres of this land, free except for modest commission-transfer charges, to approved applicants.

This land concession is authorized by Presidential Decree and contracted by the Government Department of Public Lands and Colonization, the Minister of Economy and the Minister of Public Works. Dr. J. M. Sheppard, Ameriran, and Prof. Arturo Montesinos, Ecuadorean, are appointed as government intermediaries to publicize, distribute and allot this land to satisfactory British and North American citizens.

The Weather's Fine

Elevation of the land is over 600 feet. Average temperature from 72 to 88 degrees F. Location: Less than 125 miles from Quito, capital city of the republic, with road connections to and adjoining an all-weather highway now linked with Quito, soon to be linked, in the opposite direction with Esmeraldas on the Pacific coast. Ample rainfall and excellent virgin soil, testing equal to that of Java, long recognized as the best on earth, are available.

Stands of top grade tropical timber are to be found upon the land. As the concession is close to rivers and interspersed with streams, an abundance of water power is available. A recently constructed hospital is located in the nearby town of Santo Domingo de los Colorados which also has daily mail service, telegraphic connections and police protection.

Call for Pioneers

Ecuador, with but three million inhabitants, needs and invites colonization by pioneer-minded, ambitious, agriculturally inclined men and women of good character and responsibility. Settlers will be allowed to bring in all personal effects and agricultural implements free of custom-duty charges.

Interested parties may obtain soil and health reports, maps of Ecuador and this land concession, lists of tropical fruits, vegetables and paying crops recommended for the area and application blanks for land reservation without charge or obligation by addressing Dr. J. M. Sheppard, Co-Intermediary, Casilla 315, Quito, Ecuador, South America.

TAHOE TROUT COMES TO COMPLETE SNAP FOR ALBUM OF VISIT

TAHOE CITY— An unusual fish story came to light from Bay View Resort near Emerald Bay. Seems two of the guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bendorf of Oakland, were eager to impress their friends with their wonderful vacation at Tahoe so they decided to take some pictures to prove it.

Bendorf had been fishing a few times, with only a few small trout the best he could do. This particular day they donned sports togs and he sat beside the stream while his wife set the camera for the shot. When all was ready, he threw in his line and lo! out came a beautiful three pound rainbow on his hook! There was no longer any need for an affected smile for pictorial purposes —his delighted grin was genuine.

Fred Main of Tahoe and Lucius Davis and Walter Rorbach, both of San Francisco, recently enjoyed a successful fishing trip to Tallant Lakes, above Tahoe, where they caught a fine batch of fish, ranging up to 12 inches in length. They used a mixture of grubs, worms and flies with equal success.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rookwood of Homewood on Wednesday evening last hosted a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Annie Soll who left the following day for Sacramento where she and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerkin, flew to Tacoma to visit with relatives. The guests included Bill Larsen of San Francisco, Mrs. Claudia Spooner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Soll and the hosts. Larsen was a guest of the Solls for several days.

Report to people waiting for telephone service

. . . Pacific Coast's amazing growth makes job bigger than ever
We are adding equipment and installing telephones just as fast as conditions permit . . . at a faster pace this year, in fact, than ever before.
But continuing shortages of equipment and restrictions on building construction have so far made it impossible for us to keep pace with the Pacific Coast's spectacular growth. Though we have already added more than 253,000 new telephones during the first eight months of this year and every bit of our equipment is working to capacity, there is still a big job ahead. You can be sure we are doing everything we can to get your telephone to you as soon as possible.
Thank you for your understanding and patience.

BOB WATSON NAMED TO POSITION OVER PROTEST BY HAINES

AUBURN— Placer County's board of supervisors appointed Robert Watson of Tahoe City to the newly created office of county building inspector in an action the chairman, William Haines, says is illegal.

The action was taken on a motion by Supervisor Jerry Shelley of Roseville, seconded by Charles Geisendorfer of Colfax. Supervisor John McFadden voted with them to carry the motion 3 to 2. John Boyington of Loomis and Haines dissented.

Haines contends the action is illegal because the county planning commission will meet October 18 and must recommend the man to be appointed. He has adjourned the board until October 19 to give the commission an opportunity to act. Haines states if the planning body approves Watson, the appointment can be made legally the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kohler of Napa returned home on Thursday last, following a week or more of hunting and fishing at Big Chief.

DICK CARNELL BAGS BIGGEST BUCK IN LAKE TAHOE AREA

TAHOE CITY— Successful hunters are becoming scarcer daily at Tahoe, with only two bucks turned in at public campground since the first of October.

One of these was the largest of the season, killed by Dick Carnell of Tahoe City on Sunday morning. He and his brother, Howard, had been hunting and were returning home when they saw the big buck near Truckee River in front of their home. Howard shot first, scoring a near miss, but Dick cashed in on his Army expert's rating and sent three bullets from his .32 special into the animal. He was a four-pointer, dressing in at 207 pounds.

The second buck turned in around the first of the month was dropped by O. W. Thompson of Berkeley who killed his four-pointer on the Brockway-Truckee cutoff near Brockwal Summit. It weighed 125 pounds.

Floyd Carnell brought in a three pointer which weighed around 110 pounds last week and Jimmie Walker of Pasadena killed a 145 pound forked horn in Page Meadows.

Down Homewood way, one delighted hunter was Edgar Myers. Myers says it was his first hunting license, his first gun and his first buck—bagged on the first shot. It was a 140 pound forked horn. He had hunted all over the mountains to the west without seeing a deer and was homeward bound, within 200 yards in fact from home, when he turned at a slight noise and there stood the buck which one shot brought down.

Col. and Mrs. A. P. Crist have closed their summer home atop Dollar Hill and left for their home in Oakland for the winter.

Earl Weyhe and Jim Wilson of Santa Rosa were guests over the weekend at the A. M. Henry home in town. They tried their luck at deer hunting while here.

Mugwump - Be One Now

MUGWUMP, in American political slang, is a name applied to any independent voter. And Mugwump is what every good American had better be this November if he wishes to prevent his country from accelerating the downhill slide which it is now in the process of taking. In other words, hidebound Democrats must vote Republican if their own party candidate is one of those backed by well known Left wing and subversive elements of this country; and dyed in the wool Republicans must vote for a Democrat if he is opposed by a "fellow traveler" Republican.

Practically all of us now know the reason for shortages in nearly every product we attempt to purchase. We know that subversive elements in many labor unions have usurped control from the American elements, and that these unions have so checkerboarded and arranged the current strikes that essential parts for various products are denied the manufacturers with the result that stocks of almost finished goods are piling up in great quantities and laying the foundation for some sort of fearful economic collapse. We know that this is thoroughly, carefully, and brilliantly planned by enemies of our country, both here and from abroad. Most of the moving spirits in this country are foreign born, with no more interest in the United States than Americans have in Southern Rhodesia. We know that these men are even sacrificing themselves in order to bring our country to such a state of collapse, that in the debacle which may follow, their particular creed (Communism) can probably take over.

This is all common knowledge, and yet we say—"What can we do about it?" That is a very stupid question. Let us grant that there is nothing at the moment we can do about it, but in this coming November there is everything we can do about it. We can vote right out of office every man suspected of having any association with the enemies who are attacking us; and we can vote into office men whom we know are running on a platform of America for Americans.

It may sound trite to say that this coming November election could be our last opportunity to vote: But if we put back into power those men—now in Washington and in some of our state governments—who have no intention whatsoever of controlling the elements which are so viciously attacking our economy—the next two years may see our system destroyed and our freedom taken from us: Because many precedents prove that even free men will finally demand "government control" if conditions become unendurable.

What a heartless trick the non-voter, or the thoughtless voter, will be playing on his, or her, children this coming November!

Now visiting at Tahoe is Loren Holmwood, Colorado portrait artist, who has purchased a section of land in the new Ward Creek Homes subdivision where he is reported erecting a modern, spacious log cabin for his summer home.

Tahoe Lake School Column

Most entertaining was the pet show held last Monday afternoon at the Tahoe Lake School. Many of the mothers and other guests attended and enjoyed the unusual affair. Lucille Haugen, reporting for the grammar grades, said a total of more than 25 animals were in the show, the largest being a horse entered by Joanne Roberts and the smallest pet a pigeon entered by her sister Diane. The balance of the pets were cats and dogs, the dogs predominating. All entries received awards of red and blue ribbons.

The high school last Saturday night staged a novel Sox Hop, which requires that all dancers discard their shoes and tread the light fantastic in their stockings and sox. It w s termed a huge success, and was aided by refreshments. Mrs. Bliss Hinkle was chaperone.

Otto Fox of Auburn, orchestra leader, came to Tahoe on Saturday where he gave some music lessons and held practice.

The lake level on Monday stood at 6227.53 with 302 CSF of water leaving the gates in town. Precipitation for the past week was 1.07 inchesi with only a trace of snow following the storm. Coldest day was 27 degrees on the 2nd and warmest was on the 4th with 51 registered.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lopes arrived from their home in San Leandro on Thursday last, intending to spent a quiet week at their Timberland Tract summer cottage. After one night of cold, however, they changed their minds and returned to San Leandro the next day. The early snow storms have changed Tahoe's mild temperatures tothose resembling early winter.

Judge and Mrs. C. C. McDonald of Woodland have closed their home in Timberland and returned to their residence below for the winter.

While Donna Rachele Mussolini, widow of Il Duce, one-time mistress of a Roman palace, keeps house and supplements the family diet by raising rabbits, her son Romano plays piano and accordion at a bar on the picturesque little island in the bay of Naples. Surplus Herlong Engines Slated for Service On Farthest North Railroad

Two deisel electric locomotives and five railway hospital cars have been sold by War Assets Administration to the Alasaka Railroad, which is operated by the Department of the Interior, San Francisco officials of WAA report.

The locomotives and cars were sold for what they cost the government, or $56,214.26 each for the cars and $38,380.77 each for the locomotives. Total of the sale was $357,832.81.

The two 65-ton deisel electric locomotives were used during the war at the Army's Sierra Ordnance Depot at Herlong. The hospital cars were built in 1943 and are practically new, in railroad parlance.

In order to get the cars and locomotives to Seattle for shipment to Anchorage, Alaska, it was necessary, L. S. Davis of the Industrial Equipment division of WAA arranged for a master sergeant who is familiar with the locomotives to travel with them from Herlong to Seattle. It also was necessary to obtain an order restricting speed of the freight train in which they will roll on their own wheels to 20 miles an hour. This was necessary because the electric motors are geared to a top speed of 20 miles, and height of the locomotives was too great to permit shipping them on flat cars. The locked hospital cars are being sent at once to Seattle as part of a fast freight.

Weddings of Interest To Tahoe Residents

ATHERTON - HANCOCK

TAHOE CITY— Coming as a complete surprise to her many friends in the Tahoe region was the wedding on Sunday, October6, of Mrs. Ethel Atherton, former Tahoe resident and widow of the late Weller Atherton, and C. H. Hancock of Reno.

Only immediate family members witnessed the candlelight ceremony at the Reno Methodist Church, where W. A. Simmonds of Tahoe City, the bride's father, gave his daughter in marriage. Matron of honor was the bride's niece, Mrs. Rita Norregaard of Reno, and a nephew served as best man for the groom.

The bride wore for the simple ceremony a bluish gray suit with blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds and orange blossoms.

Following the wedding a turkey dinner was served 20 of the guests at Villa Sierra, just outside of Reno.

The groom is a well-known builder and contractor of Reno and has only recently completed a beautiful new home in the residential district southwest of Reno where he will stablish his bride.

The newlyweds planned a motor tour of California and Oregon, going north by the Redwood Highway, before settling in the "biggest little city in the world."

ZIMMERMAN - HALE

TAHOE CITY— The many friends of the Rudolph Zimmermans of Holiday House on the shore of the lake in the Sunnyside district are learning this week the details of the beautiful wedding ceremony which on August 26 united Miss Ruth Zimmerman and James C. Hale.

The setting was St. Peter's Episcopal Church in San Francisco where the bride's father gave his only daughter in marriage. She was lovely in a gown of champagne-colored chantilly lace, made with fitted bodice, and full skirt which extended into a long train. A coronet of orange blossoms held her veil in place and she carried white orchids.

Her four attendents were gowned in white mousseline desoie, with cap sleeves, shirred bodices and bouffant skirts, anthurium forming headdresses and bouquets. They were Mrs. Willima S. Solari Jr., matron of honor; Mrs. William Newton III, Mrs. William Cunha and Mrs. Thornton McCarthy.

Garvin W. Hale served as his brother's best man and ushers were Richard Robinson, Richard Simmons, Charles Keiser nd Mark McDonough.

A reception was held in th Room of Dons at the Mark Hopkins following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. John Collins.

The bride attended the University of Colorado and graduated from the University of California, where she was president of Chi Omega. The family home is in St. Francis Woods of San Francisco.

The groom was recently discharged from service after having spent five years duty in the Pacific and European areas as a lieutenant in the U.S.C.G.R. He is the son of the late James Hale and Mrs. O. M. Satterlee, members of a pioneer Kansas family. He attended University of Kansas and is a member of the San Francisco Bachelors. The justweds honeymooned at Coronado.

It pays to advertise.

MY PLACE in the SUN

by DOUG BARRETT

Wonder how many of you have taken the trouble to study the licenses hanging around in the various places of business in Truckee. For instance, how many of you have noticed the liquor license most prominently displayed at Truckee Mercantile? The license is valid from August 1905 to June 1906 and is made out to permit Benny Lyon to engage in the retail liquor trade on Front Street, Truckee. The fee paid, according to the face of the voucher, was $22.92—pro rated from the $25 annual fee....Incidentally, last Friday October 4, N. F. (Tom) Dolley of the Merc marked his birthdate and report hath that Gene Gini and Philip "Junior" Ladd, the handyboys, nailed him in the traditional natal day punishment.

From the Auburn Placer Herald's 20 years ago feature, we learn that in 1926 the Truckee River Power Company was authorized to exercise the rights under a franchise if granted by the Placer county supervisors to construct a 13,000-volt line from its substation at Truckee in order to supply electric power to hotels, resorts and summer homes at Lake Tahoe.

AROUND TOWN: Truckee's entire officialdom—Constable Tom Dolley, Judge Dick Little and Supervisor Hank Loehr—chatting with ex-D. A. Vern Stoll after Lions....the Wednesday Eightsome forsaking bridge for astronomy to watch the celestial fireworks last night....don't sell the Nevada football team short, I did and it cost me....Irene Englehart really looks good is black....Bill Wright must have quite a collection of headgear....help problems and shortages of material at the laundry really have taken pounds off of Nat Quilici....Jake Stuart really fills the seat behind the wheel of the Rotary Oil pickup....Dick Bradshaw, the soul of courtesy at Tonini's, waiting on his mother...."Joe" Henry seen around town from Tahoe two-days running—both Joe and the days....Mr. and Mrs. John Collier homeward bound....really like the smell of Floyd Carnell's pipe fillings.

Urges Return of U.S. To Local Tax Rolls

FRESNO— Superior Judge Goodwin J. Knight this week called for a return of federal, tax-exempt lands to private ownership in California. The Republican candidate for lieutenant governor pointed out that 46 p cent of all land in the state is either owned or leased by the federal government, and therefore exempt from state and county tax rolls.

He insisted that a great part of the federally owned or leased land can be returned to private ownership and be restored to tax rolls, thereby relieving the load on present taxpayers both large and small.

In Bishop—

Dr. W. D. Teeple, former local dentist, recently moved from San Diego to Bishop.

Birthdate—

Barry Phipps,, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Phipps, celebrated his birthdate at his home on September 30.

Guest Here—

Mrs. Rose Capurro of Daly City was a guest of Mrs. E. J. Campbell for several days this week.

Winter Bus Service Is Certain for South Tahoe
